REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

At the school meeting last March money was voted for an additional room at the Bow Mills building. Plans were immediately begun so that actual work on construction was under way by the close of school. This addition has amounted to more than one single room as it carried with it changes looking forward to the eventual addition of another room. This meant rearrangement of toilets, the inclusion of a rear entrance to the hall, and a small rest room, which serves also as a room where the school nurse will weigh and examine the pupils.

The pupils from the "White School" are now at the Mills school. There are at present 90 pupils there. Miss Hird has charge of grades I-III, with a total of 29. Miss Cole has grades IV and V, with a total of 29. Miss Smith has grades VII and VIII, with a total of 32. A grouping of grades was made so that the members were as equally divided as possible. There is ample room for all, and the pupils from River Road could easily be accommodated.

In addition to the new rooms, hall, and basement, many necessary repairs were made in the two original rooms. Repairs outside, painting outside and in, changing of lights and drinking arrangements, now provides an almost "new" building. It is well lighted, heated, and thoroughly modern. Such provision for the young people is a real asset to the town.

The following pupils graduated from grade VIII last June: Those starred entered high school last September.

Bog	90.0%

Bow Mills Primary: Carol Allbee, Gertrude Bowen, Betsy Colby, Alice Hanson.

Bow Bog: Doris M. Wessman.

In schools as in every line of endeavor, there is never a time when everything is all completed and put away. There are always betterments possible, changes desirable, new ways worth trying, to the one end of better preparation of the young people for a place in a none too easy world. To all who in any way, known and unknown are working for such an outcome and are quietly co-operating for that — we express our hearty appreciation. We are at all times ready to meet with and discuss with anyone or any group propositions or plans, or suggestions, which enter into the work, or are allied with the more effective working of your schools.

Respectfully submitted,

J. BYRON TARNEY,
Superintendent of Schools.
